Mr. J. B. Clark
Director, External Services
Broadcasting House
London W. 1, England

Dear Mr. Clark:

I want to thank you most sincerely for your kindness and courtesy to me during my recent visit to England. The luncheon which you so graciously provided was doubly appreciated since it gave me an opportunity to renew my acquaintance with Bobby Cockburn.

The meeting with Mr. Marriott's successor while brief, has made me certain that the excellent relations between the BBC Monitoring Service and FROTS will continue to grow in depth and mutual good will through the years. STAT

I have reported to [] and he joins me in the hope that we will have the opportunity of seeing you in Washington as soon as your schedule will permit.

Sincerely,

[]
